

History A

Exam Board: OCR
Specification: A Level -H505

Entry Criteria:
Grade 6 – GCSE History. All students must also have achieved a GCSE Grade 5 in English Language or English Literature.

What will I study:
During the course students cover a range of topics and will develop sources analysis and evaluation skills, essay writing skills, the ability to construct a historical interpretations, debate and read in-depth historical material.

A Level Units

Year 1:
Y112: Britain 1900–1951
(Enquiry topic: England and a New Century c.1900–1918)
Y213: The French Revolution and the rule of Napoleon 1774–1815

Year 2:
Y100: Topic based essay. Learners will complete a 3,000 to 4,000 word essay on a topic of their choice.
Y319: Civil Rights in the USA 1865—1992

Final Qualification: A Level

Progression Pathways:
History is a diverse subject that lends itself well to almost any career. The study of History at University is a sound foundation for a career in Law, Social Research, Journalism, TV Research and the Civil Service.

Course Leader: Ms O'Neill

Specification Link:
<http://www.ocr.org.uk/Images/170128-specification-accredited-a-level-gce-history-a-h505.pdf>